

Dear School Council Member ☺

Thank you for being on our School Council in 2019 and representing yourself so well. Your voice is important to us and we have loved listening to all your ideas and opinions about school matters over the year. As a thank you we would now like you to represent our school at THE BRAID this Friday - 22nd November at the below event.

If you would be happy to attend please complete the slip below and return this to Mrs McLaughlin by Thursday 21st November.

Enjoy!

Mrs McMaster & Mrs McLaughlin

THE BRAID
ARTS CENTRE

The Braid are offering pupils an opportunity to attend a very special workshop on Friday 22 November 2019 from 10.00am to 11.30am in The Braid Arts Centre.

Marc Silk - The Voice of Your Imagination

His voice is heard around the world in cartoons, games, commercials, theme parks, TV shows and movies, and for one day only Marc Silk will be in The Braid Arts Centre to hold a special workshop for local school children.

Marc Silk worked with George Lucas in Star Wars: Episode I, as the voice of Ahsoka Tano. He's the voice of Johnny Bravo for Cartoon Network UK. Scooby-Doo & Shaggy for Cartoon Network UK, CITV, and Scooby-Doo toys, games and commercials. Marc plays over 30 character voices in the new TV production of Danger Mouse. He's the voice of Grandmaster Glitch in the action packed show Go Jetters. Marc features in many hit animated TV series, including: Fifi & The Flowertots, Roary The Racing Car and Emmy nominated Strange Hill High. He is the narrator in Pingu and new productions of In The Night Garden.

Marc's work in games include the BAFTA award winning Black and White, Overlord, Micro Machines World Series, F1 Race Stars, Buzz master quiz, and Chicken Run.

In this fun workshop children will be taught to use their voices in very different ways. Marc will guide them through a series of characters and tricks to make sounds and manipulate their voices to special effects.
