Raceview Mill

Raceview Mill is a unique project, recently featured by Penelope Keith on Channel 4's Village of the Year.

For over 100 years the Victorian Raceview Mill was the industrial powerhouse of Broughshane. Saved from demolition in 2013 this rescued Victorian Mill has become a fusion of a beautiful riverside walk, yoga studios, health practitioners, architects, florists, tailors, gym, beauticians, dog groomers, artisan food producers, wedding venue, conference centre, art galleries, a superb dog friendly coffee shop, and much more, all set in the award winning garden Village of Ulster, Broughshane.
